In this workshop, you will learn:

How to recognize disordered eating
How to provide support to someone who is struggling with eating issues
Where to find campus/community resources related to eating and body image issues